CONDENSED LOCALS.

There was quite a commotion on B street along the line of the country wagons in rear of the Center market this morning, and a number of persons rushed from the sidewalk to the street, expecting to witness an exciting runaway. Their expectations were not realized, however, for the noise was made by a procession of express wagons making fast time to the commission houses. There were five wagons in the pro-cession, and all of them were laden with strawberries from Norfolk intended for to-

William Patton, a colored man, who for ten years has had a bootblack stand on G street northwest between 6th and 7th streets, for the accommodation of the public as well as to earn his livelihood, was before Judge Kimball today on a charge of street obstruction. Under the law, he can-not keep the stand there unless he rents part of the building in front of which he locates. The colored man promised to re-move the obstruction, and the court took his personal bonds.

AFFAIRS IN GEORGETOWN

Two Accidents Today, Neither Proving to Be Serious.

Church Congregation Against the Reappointment of the Pastor.

There were two accidents in town this forenoon, both occurring at nearly the same time, though the results, fortunately, did not prove to be serious. A thirteenyear-old white boy, named James Poindexter, who was in the dairy wagon of David Wetzel, driven by the owner, while attempting to get out of the vehicle near 34th and S streets about 10:30 c'clock, slipped and fell to the ground. The front wheel of the wagon passed over him, when the horse backed and caused the wheel to roll onto the lad's body, where it rested. The wagon was lifted from the prostrate form and the boy was picked up. He did not appear to be very much injured, though he complained of pain in the region of his stomach. The other accident occurred about the same time at the row of five new houses now in course of construction on P street near the corner of 32d street. William Spencer, a colored driver, about thirty years of age, who lives at 406 K street southeast, was the victim. He was driving a heavily loaded lumber wagon across the lot, when the front wheels ran up on a pile of broken stone, throwing him off and of broken stone, throwing him off and landing him beneath the front wheels, which passed over his right leg. An examination made hastily by Dr. A. B. Snekell failed to reveal any fractures of the bore, though it was thought the man was injured internally. injured internally. The patrol wagon was summoned and he was conveyed to the Emergency Hospital.

In the Churches. Rev. George S. Bowman will deliver the sermon tomerrow at the morning services in the Gay Street Baptist Church. In the evening Prof. A P. Works will have charge of the services and occupy the pulpit. They Prefer a Change. The Baltimere conference of the A. M. E. Church has reappointed Rev. W. R. Arnold to Ebenezer A. M. E. Church. Much disappointment is expressed by the members, as a change of pastorate was requested by the official board. It is understood that a petition is in circulation and being signed by all of the members of the church, which will be forwarded to Bishop James A. Handy, protesting against the appointment.

Minor Items of Interest. The remains of Elijah Shelton, the wellknewn colored barber, whose sudden death occurred from hemorrhage Thursday morning, at the Emergency Hospital, will be buried tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from his parents' residence, 2450 P street. A. Geary Johnson and others have sold to the Independent Ice Company lot 4 and the east half of lot 5, square 1174; considthe east half of lot 5, square 1174; consideration not stated.

The Commissioners have ordered the repair of the driveway on the east side of 34th street between N and O streets.

Patrick Murphy has bought of Samuel Cross lot 20, square 1245, situated in the alley between 33d, 34th, O and P streets.

According to an order of the Commissioners, the cost of repairing the tracks of the Capital Traction Company at the east end of the M street bridge is to be deducted from the appropriation for the construction of the intercepting sewer, the damage being caused by the District during the progress of that construction. THE OFFICIAL WEATHER MAP.

EXPLANATORY NOTE: Observations taken at 8 a.m., 75th meridian time. Solid lines are isobars, or lines of equal air pressure, drawn for each tenth of an inch. Dotted lines are isotherms, or lines of equal temperature, drawn for each ten degrees. Shaded areas are regions where rain or snow has fallen during preceding twelve hours. The words "High" and "Low" show location of areas of high and low barometer. Small arrows fly with the wind.

FAIR AND WARMER.

Cyclers Can Look Forward to Pleasant Weather Tomorrow. Forecast till 8 p.m. Sunday.-For the District of Columbia, Delaware and Maryland, fair; warmer; northeasterly winds, becoming southeasterly. For Virginia and North Carolina, fair tonight and Sunday; warmer; northeasterly winds, becoming southerly.

Weather conditions and general forecast The pressure is low over the gulf of St. Lawrence. An area of high pressure, central in the lower lake region, covers the Atlantic and east gulf states. A trough of low pressure extends from Manitoba southwestward to Arizona, with a storm center to the north of Minnesota. A second area of high pressure covers the Rocky moun-tain plateau, central on the north Pacific coast. The barometer has risen in New England and the north Atlantic states, also on the northern Rocky mountain plateau; it has fallen in the upper Mississippi valley and on the middle Rocky mountain slope. The temperature is lower in the middle Atlantic states and on the northern, Rocky mountain plateau, and it is warmer in the lake regions and generally in the central valleys.

mportant Amendment to an Order Affecting Subdivisions of Lands. About a year ago the Commissioners, ac tuated by a desire to better the facilities for the platting and subdivision of land. issued an order directing the assessor to send a circular letter to the owners of fractions of lots, or lots numbered in dupli-Albert M. Read, Gen'l Manager. 1t cate, in order that the same may be renumbered in accordance with law. Several days ago Engineer Commissioner

Black called this matter up for consideration before the board. He said he thought in its present shape the order was subject to abuse, and may be applied in a manner subversive to the regulations governing the platting and subdividing of land. He cited as an illustration the case of a man who might acquire a fraction of a lot, and no matter what its size or shape may be, the assessor is directed to request the owner of this fraction of a jot to assent to its re-numbering, and the surveyor is to draw up the subdivision and enter it in his office free of charge. Captain Black argued that the act requiring the above action was, to his mind, clearly subdivision to the act of August 27, 1888, regalating the subdivision of land in the District of Columbia. To remedy existing defects, Captain black thereupon moved an amendment to the or-
